

JOIN THE ERIC LIDDELL CENTRE

The Eric Liddell Centre is a local community organisation that relies on its members to determine the strategy and future direction of its work.

The Centre is governed by a board of trustees elected by the members at the AGM.

In order to develop our work we need more local people to become members. If you have an interest in the local community and you want to make a difference then we would welcome you as a member.

FEES

The minimum subscription is £24 per person per annum. A reduced subscription of £12 per annum in respect of pensioners, the unemployed and students is allowed.

The membership fee is used as a donation towards our charitable work.

Cheques should be made payable to "Eric Liddell Centre Ltd".

You can join online by going to www.ericliddell.org/join

If you are a tax payer please consider completing the gift aid declaration opposite. This will enable us to recover tax on any monies you give us.

NOTES

A membership certificate will be sent to you when your application has been processed. All new membership applications have to be approved by the board. The board meets quarterly so it could take three months before you receive your certificate.

Rights and Responsibilities of Members

People admitted to membership will be expected to uphold the objects of the association, which are to further the welfare of the local community as an expression of Christian witness.

The Centre is a registered charity no SC 003147.

Paid up members have the right to

- Attend and vote at the Annual General Meeting.
- Call an Extraordinary General Meeting (requires a minimum of twenty members to do so).

Every member agrees to pay a sum not exceeding £1 in the event of the association being wound up.

A full description of the rights of members is contained in our memorandum and articles of association which is available from the secretary or for download from our web site at www.ericliddell.org/join
