

THE Eric Liddell CENTRE

“Inspiring, empowering and supporting our community”

The Helping Hand Programme “Local people helping us to help others”

Bukrum

We are thrilled that you are interested in being a volunteer helper in Bukrum, our second hand book shop for the local community. We hope that you find the information about what you can do to help useful.

How will I make a difference?

The Eric Liddell Centre provides a number of services including a Day Care service and support for carers. Several charities are based at the Centre and many different organisations rent rooms here. It is a busy place with a real buzz and a variety of different people from young to old not to mention the young families taking their children to classes from Monkey Music to Judo. We want to capitalise on this busy environment by selling books that have been donated by members of the public. The funds we raise from book sales will help fund our core activities essential for the local community.

What will I be doing?

You will be helping customers choose books. During quieter times you will be stocking shelves and pricing books.

Will I be trained?

Yes we take Fire Safety very seriously at the Centre, so this will be part of your initial training. You may also choose to be trained in emergency first aid.

Is Bukrum on every day?

No initially Bukrum will be open on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 10am-3pm but we can be flexible depending on when people are able to volunteer.

What do I do next?

Please complete the “Helping Hand Programme” application form and make “Bukrum” volunteer your first choice, we will then get back to you!
