Tots Togs Volunteer

How will I make a difference?

The Eric Liddell centre is an independent charity that serves the Edinburgh Community through its programme for carers and registered daycare service for people with dementia. The centre has a mixed economy of funding sources but to strengthen this “mix” the Centre hopes to generate new income to support its services but also to provide support to young families who may be “feeling the pinch” in these difficult times.

What will I be doing?

You will be helping to create an age specific charity shop that sells quality donated baby wear and toddlers clothing. You will help create a display and sales point and promote the activity throughout the community. When the ‘Tots Togs’ shop opens a team of volunteers will provide, a collection point for donated baby wear and toddler clothing and will sort, launder, press, price or label articles as necessary.

Will I be trained?

Yes on fundraising standards, ethics and codes of Practice applicable to position.

How much time will I need to give?

Tots Togs will initially open to the public from 10am – 3pm on Tuesdays and Thursdays but helpers will be required on other days as well.
